

Political Contributions and Lobbying Report

Prologis maintains a government affairs function that engages in public policy advocacy in support of our business objectives through ongoing, constructive and transparent interactions with government officials, policymakers and stakeholder groups. All advocacy activities are directed toward advancing the Company's purpose to create value for our stockholders and other stakeholders, without regard to the personal political affiliations or views of any individual Prologis employees at any level across the organization. Our participation in the political process is governed with Board oversight and is accountable to senior leadership.
