

Political Contributions and Lobbying Report

Prologis does not have a political action committee and prohibits the use of corporate funds and assets to directly support U.S. federal or state candidates or political parties except to the extent such contributions are made to a PAC. Prologis did not contribute directly to any state of federal ballot measures in 2023.

Prologis is a member of certain trade associations through which we engage with policymakers and other stakeholders. We have informed our major U.S. trade associations and relevant 501(c)(4) organizations that they are prohibited from applying any Prologis funds to support contributions to any U.S. federal or state candidate or political party.
